

Dear Suzy,

The importance of keeping the house is very clear and therefore action is needed. Since it is very hard to sustain financially, the option of adding social activities or adding artistic partners feels right. A change is an opportunity of growth and arises creativity. Lets remind everyone that we are needed for the city, the field and the community.

Daniel Barkan